

Faculty Workshop On Student Plagiarism

April 18, 2007

Noon - 1:45 P.M.

University of Hartford, Dana Hall, Room 201

Sponsored and Organized by Hartford Consortium for Higher Education

Overview: In response to the problem of student plagiarism on campuses, the Hartford Consortium is pleased to sponsor a workshop that will focus on preventing plagiarism. The workshop will also cover ways to identify plagiarism. There will be ample time for questions and dialogue.

Facilitator: The facilitator will be Dr. Lorraine Higgins, Associate Professor of English and Director of the Center for Communication Across the Curriculum at Worcester Polytechnic Institute. Dr. Higgins has conducted workshops in Massachusetts and has been well received by area faculty in Worcester. We expect a dynamic program that will offer strategies and information that you can take back to your classes.

Registration: The program and lunch will be offered without cost to faculty of Hartford Consortium institutions. Pre-registration is required, however.

Space is limited, but we want to encourage faculty members from all of the Consortium colleges/universities to attend the workshop.

To register, please send an email to rdruckman@ccc.commnet.edu with your name, title, institution, email address and phone number. Only email registrations will be accepted.

Parking and Directions: This information will be sent to you in your confirmation email.

Questions: Please contact Rosanne Druckman at (860) 906-5038.
